2nd Annual Blue Ridge Storyfest

Make plans now to join us September 27 at Lake Junaluska as we welcome storytellers Donald Davis and Mitch Capel for a day of family entertainment at the 2nd Annual Blue Ridge StoryFest. Sure to delight young and old alike the day's schedule will include an open mic session that encourages audience participation followed by members of the Asheville Storytelling Circle. The afternoon and evening will feature performances by Davis and Capel, both nationally acclaimed tellers who have been featured at the Jonesborough Storytelling Festival. More

Entertainment Opportunities at Lake Junaluska

From international dance teams to traditional mountain music and dance, Lake Junaluska offers entertainment packages sure to meet your needs. On Sunday, July 27 we welcome Folkmoot USA to Stuart Auditorium where performers from a dozen or so countries will demonstrate their cultural heritage through colorful, authentic and original reproduction costumes, lively dance and beautiful music. The 37th Annual Smoky Mountain Folk Festival to be held August 29 & 30 at Lake Junaluska Conference & Retreat Center will offer two nights of the finest traditional music and dance of the Southern Appalachian Region. Lodging, meals and festival ticket packages are available. For more information and package pricing on these two very special events visit our website.
