Jacobs resigns as Director of Native American Ministries

Lake Junaluska, N.C. - Darlene Jacobs, Director of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Agency on Native American Ministries (SEJANAM) at Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center, recently announced her resignation in order to accept a position as Director of Robeson Church and Community Center in Robeson County, N.C.

Her new position is full-time in an ecumenical setting, devoted to the celebration of all ethnicities. Robeson Church and Community Center was established in the early 1990s and coordinates community and social assistance services in cooperation with local congregations. Read more.

Deacon/Diakonate Gathering

October 24-26, 2010

Join together with colleagues in the Diakonate and find community and rest at Lake Junaluska's 2010 Deacon/Diakonate Gathering, October 24-26, 2010. Rev. Gary Gunderson, Deacon in Full Connection in the Memphis Conference and the Director of Methodist Healthcare in Memphis, will be the Gathering speaker.

The focus of the gathering, "The Diakonate - Bridging Brokenness, Toward Healing and Wholeness," will center on health, spirituality, and wholeness for those in full-time Ministry and for those they serve in ministry.

There will be time for fellowship with ministry colleagues from the diaconate, as well as Sabbath rest surrounded by the fall beauty of the Smoky Mountains and Lake Junaluska during one of the most beautiful times of year.

Visit www.lakejunaluska.com/deacons or call 828-454-6656.

IGC presents:
Fall Fling

October 19-22

Meditate in the beauty of an inspiring mountain setting, reflections in the Lake, and sunrises and sunsets. Grow as we share in devotions, Bible study, mini-courses, worship and entertainment. Plan excursions to places such as the Biltmore Estate, Folk Art Center, Blue Ridge Parkway, Cradle of Forestry, the Carl Sandburg Home, Thomas Wolfe Home, and the Cherokee Museum. The Bible Study Leader is Dr. Evelyn Laycock. Find out more!
