The Lake Junaluska Singers
Dr. Melodie G. Galloway, Director

The Lake Junaluska Singers serve as musical ambassadors for the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church. This 16-voice ensemble presents concerts throughout the year at the Lake Junaluska Conference and Retreat Center, along with performance tours. Concerts include classical, choral music, spirituals, comedy, and musical theatre. Bringing hope to the world through inspiring music is the primary focus of the Lake Junaluska Singers' ministry.

Bishop Kenneth Carder to speak at Lake Junaluska Peace Conference

Also, early registration deadline EXTENDED to July 31!

September 18-21, 2010

The third annual Lake Junaluska Peace Conference, September 18-21, 2010, will offer a variety of workshops and presentations. Leadership includes Marian Wright Edelman, Dr. Jeni Stepanek, and Bishop Kenneth Carder. Participants in the peace conference, "Peace for the World's Children," will have the opportunity to join with children's advocates from across the United States to explore social issues facing children. The Sunday night opening session of the Peace Conference will be led by Bishop Kenneth Carder, the Ruth W. and A. Morris Williams Professor of the Practice of Christian Ministry at the Duke Divinity School. Bishop Carder is a long time advocate for children and has a deep interest in peace. The Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church has, on several occasions, asked him to lead their efforts in these fields. Read more
