SOULFeast

July 18-22

SOULfeast is truly a spiritual feast for all God's people who are in search of rest, renewal, and an authentic experience rooted in the great traditions of the church and the emerging fresh new Christian voices. Some of the workshops are designed for church leaders who long for spiritual vitality in their ministries, while other workshops are created for persons longing for personal renewal and a deeper awareness of God's presence. Early bird deadline for registration ends June 11. Visit www.lakejunaluska.com/soulfeast/ for more information.

Bridging the Gap

October 25-27

The BRIDGING THE GAP program seeks to assist leaders in various careers and settings to put their faith into action as they honor God through their work and, additionally, to challenge local churches to champion Christian leadership development. Visit www.lakejunaluska.com/bridging/ or call 828-454-6656 for more information.

Lake Junaluska Singers first performances under the direction of Dr. Melodie Galloway

Lake Junaluska is proud to present Dr. Melodie Galloway as Director of the Lake Junaluska Singers at the annual Lake Junaluska Independence Day Weekend Celebration July 3 and July 4. These will be Dr. Galloway's first performances with the Lake Junaluska Singers. In addition to the Singers concerts, which take place in Stuart Auditorium at 7:30pm July 3 and July 4, Lake Junaluska is planning a phenomenal July 4th Independence Celebration weekend. Visitors are welcome to enjoy a free Balsam Range concert, hot air balloon rides, and many other activities beginning July 3 and ending with a fireworks spectacular July 4. Two- and three-night packages available. Find out more at www.lakejunaluska.com/july4th/
