The Enneagram

January 25-28, 2010

The entry point into spiritual experience is different for each personality type and involves the conversion from vice to virtue, allowing us to move from judgement to curiosity. Guided meditation will allow time for self-observation and small group discussions will offer strategies for waking up to our lives, for living life more fully and awake. From this place of wakefulness we will ponder the question asked by the Desert Fathers: What is your greatest obstacle to your deepest prayer? During this four day retreat, facilitator Sandra Smith will weave presentation with self-reflection, silence, dyad inquiry and small group discussion as participants journey to their deeper selves. ## Caring for Creation

April 8-11, 2010

Life in our world today is challenged by how we care for the gift of Earth given to us by God. The Christian faith challenges us to be caretakers of Earth. This event will help members of faith communities learn how we can care of the Earth is often taken for granted. Caring for Creation is an experience for laity and clergy addressing how the faith community can promote justice for Earth and its people. Find out more! mile walking trail - encountered the artists at work and engaged them in conversation. The event included an Artists Dinner on Saturday evening, followed by a PowerPoint presentation by noted artist Luke Allsbrook.

The Paint-Out concluded with an informal reception, gallery show and sale of the works created in less than twenty-four hours. Several pieces were purchased and a portion of the Artists' proceeds go to support the development of the ART & SOUL initiative.

An ART & SOUL gallery has been created in the main lobby of the Terrace Hotel. The current exhibit will remain through March 2010 and the works on display will be for sale by contacting the individual artists. The sale of art pieces will continue to benefit ART & SOUL. A listing of the pieces and the participating 2009 artists can be found at www.lakejunaluska.com/plein-air-2009.aspx. Lake Junaluska will host its second Plein Air Event in May 2010.
