Rethink Church and Charting the Course

April 25-26, and April 27-29, 2010

Join us for this exciting opportunity to learn how to develop a discipleship formation process unique to your faith community enabling members at all levels of faith development to grow in faith and Christian discipleship.

The process of this experience will enable you to understand of just what disciple making is and involves; help you to evaluate your present efforts at disciple making, and how to plan specific disciple-making ministries for the future.

An individual for a local faith community will gain a great deal from this experience. However, a team of three or more will find the experience valuable as they plan for the specific local situation. Find out more!
