African-American Clergy Leadership Development Claiming Our Humanity for Ministry "We Have This Treasure"

Designed for African-American clergy, this experience will provide tools for building successful ministries while developing greater self-awareness of soul, spirit, and mind. You will examine your strengths and challenges in order to create strategies and approaches to become a stronger leader and more spiritually attuned!

If you are looking to:

- Strengthen your ministry effectiveness,
- Create an action plan for successful ministry
- Stay inspired and motivated in your ministry
- Create a supportive network of colleagues
- Turn challenges into successes
- Discover new ideas for powerful ministry

... then this event is what you are looking for!

The unique opportunities and challenges of being an African-American in ministry will be our context. It will be a safe space for you to get to know yourself better, connect with others and strengthen your ministry to others.

The focus will be upon experiential learning with "how to" specifics included. You will receive guidance and seasoned wisdom in using your humanity, your needs, your struggles and your gifts to strengthen and enhance your ministry.

This experience will infuse each participant with courage to let God use his or her gifts more fully in the service of others. You will leave with a clear goal for improvement.

This event is sponsored by:
Office of African-American Ministries at Lake Junaluska Conference & Retreat Center

Welcome!

This is the perfect place to reflect upon and re-energize your vision for ministry and take some time to enjoy the splendid beauty of God's creation. You will discover proven ways to strengthen your ministry and become an even more effective pastor. I am pleased to have as our leader The Rev. Clarence Brown. He has a proven track record of successful ministries, consistently leading churches into new patterns of increased worship attendance and church growth. It will be an exciting, inspiring and motivating time that we will spend together with him. Our theme for this year is: "We Have This Treasure" based on II Cor. 4:7. Welcome to the start of a New Day of Ministry!

Rev. Dr. Carl Arrington
*Director of African-American Ministries
Lake Junaluska Conference & Retreat Center*

Carl is an ordained Elder in the Western North Carolina Conference and a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill and Duke Divinity School. He received his Doctor of Ministry from Drew University Theological School and served in parish ministry for over twenty years. He has received life coaching training from Coach University, Coach Training Alliance and is a certified New Life Story Wellness Coach.

Rev. Clarence Brown

Rev. Brown serves as the pastor of Annandale United Methodist Church in Annandale, Virginia. For seven years he served as District Superintendent of the Norfolk District of the Virginia Annual Conference. He has also served as the District Superintendent of the Charlottesville District, as Senior Pastor of St. Paul's UMC in Chesapeake, Virginia and as Director of the Wesley Westminster Foundation at Norfolk State University. He holds a B.A. degree from Georgia State University, a M. Div. degree from Gammon Theological Seminary (Atlanta, GA) and is nearing completion of his D. Min. degree from Wesley Theological Seminary. Rev. Brown is known across the Virginia Conference and The United Methodist Church for his strong preaching, his expertise in church revitalization, and his mentoring of young pastors. You do not want to miss out on learning these successful strategies that will help you reach more people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

A Time of Renewal, Reflection and Recommitment.
